

Results from State Representative Mike Rohrkaste's 2015 Spring Legislative Survey:

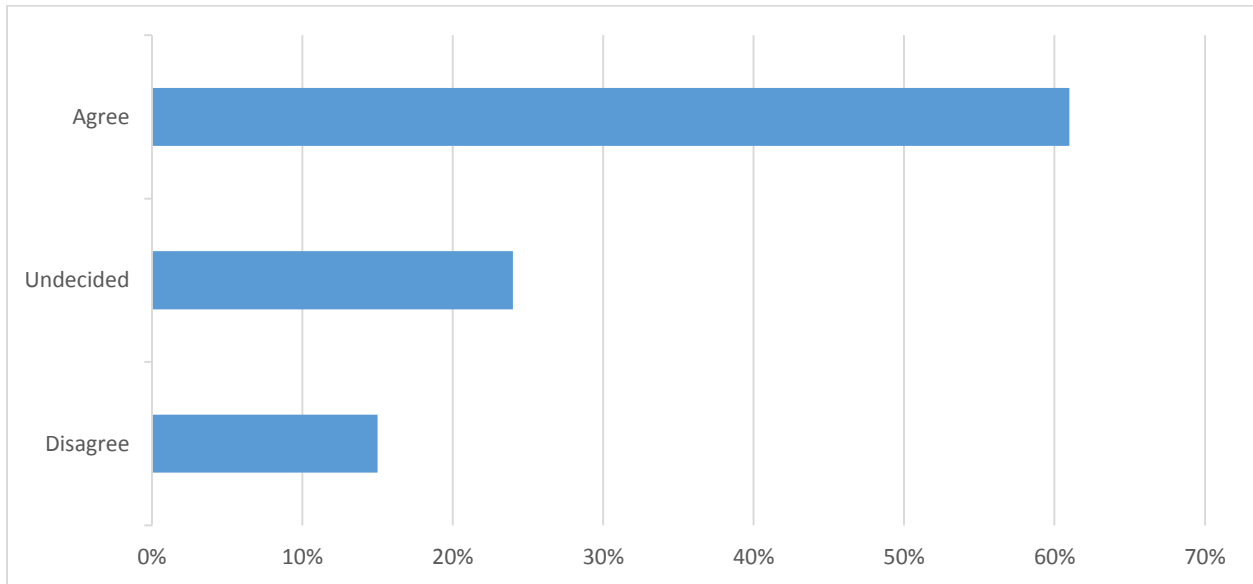

1. Generally speaking, Wisconsin is heading in the right direction.

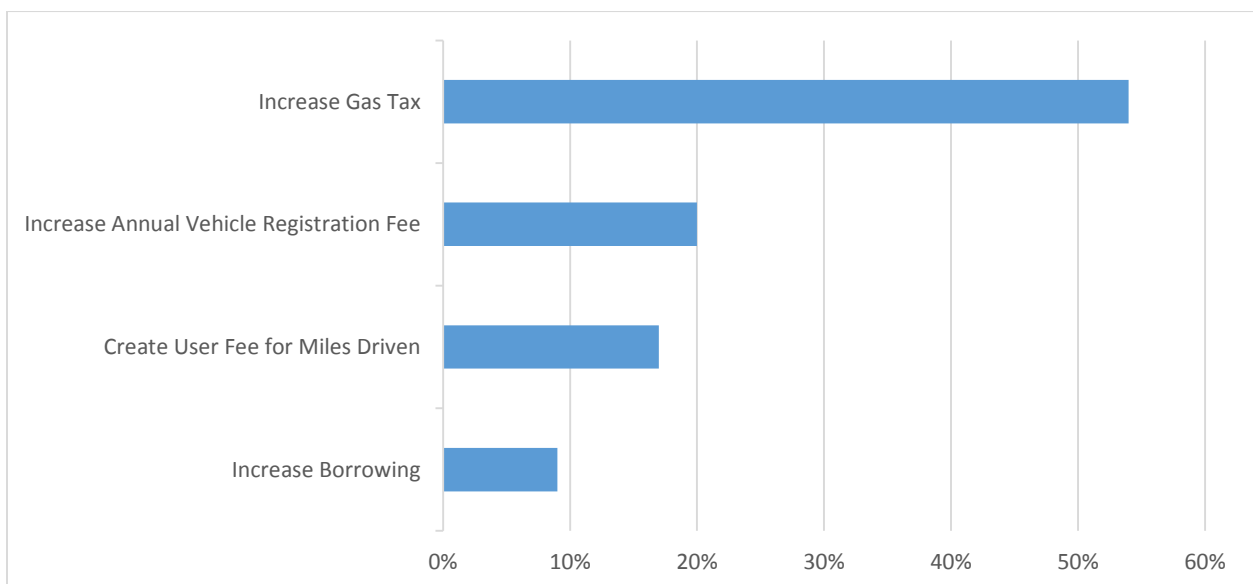

2. In exchange for more autonomy for the University of Wisconsin (UW) System, Wisconsin should reduce UW System funding by $300 million.

3. College tuition for in-state undergraduates at the UW System should be frozen for at least two years.

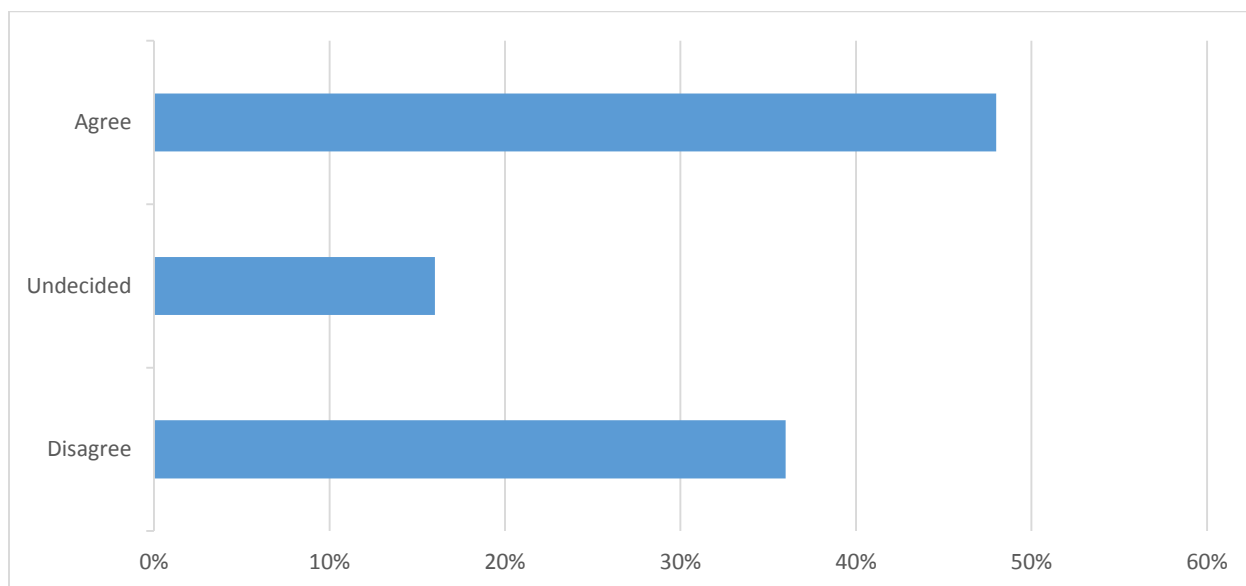

4. The transportation fund for roads is expected to have a significant shortfall in this budget and nearly a $6 billion deficit over the next decade. How should lawmakers address the issue this session?

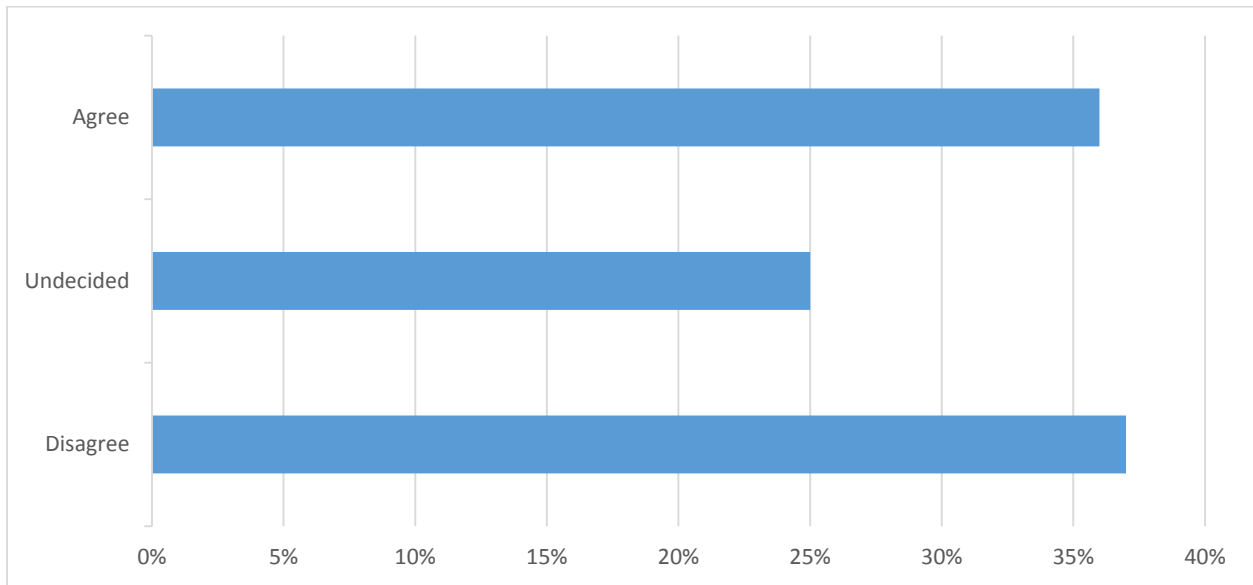

5. Wisconsin should continue to protect the right to legally own a gun.

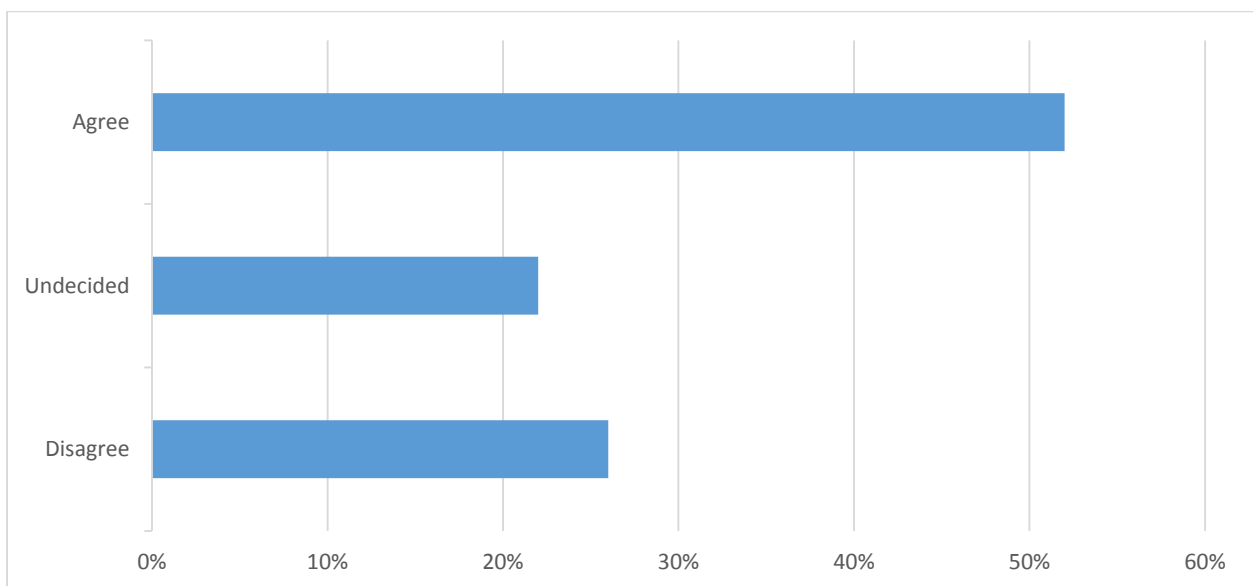

6. Wisconsin should increase restrictions on gun ownership.

7. Governor Walker proposed using $220 million in future state income tax revenue from NBA players to pay back the bonds used to help build a new Milwaukee Bucks arena. Realizing the NBA team is an economic driver for the state, these future tax dollars should go to supporting the arena.

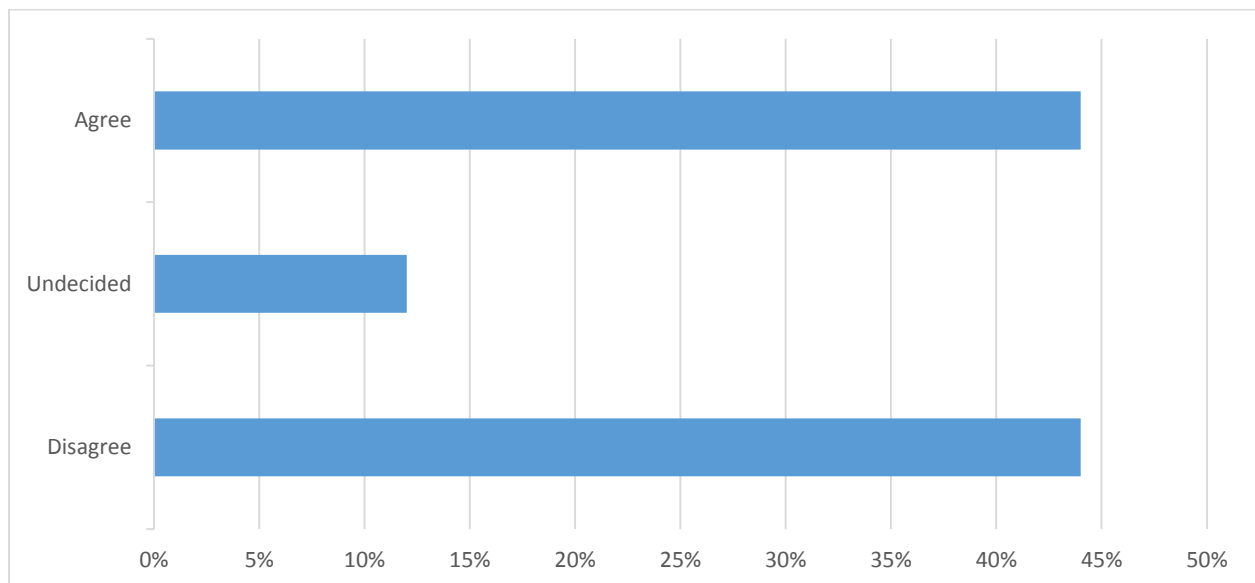

8. Wisconsin should consider returning to a system of public (taxpayer) financing of campaigns for public office.

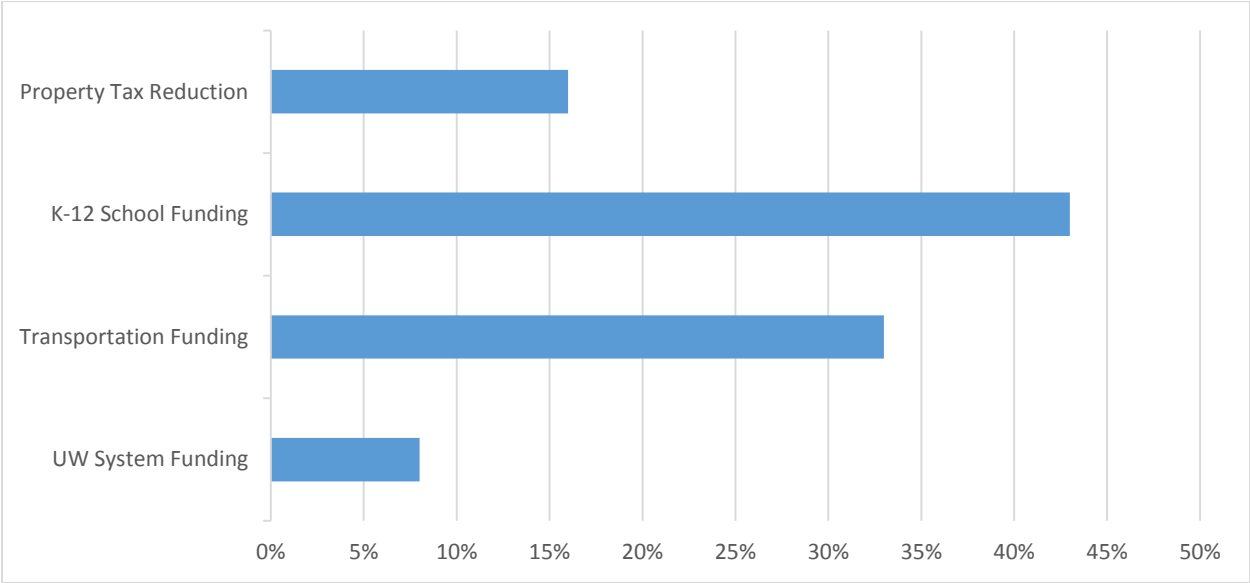

9. K-12 school choice options should be expanded to allow taxpayer-funded scholarships to be used for low-income families to attend a state-approved private school.

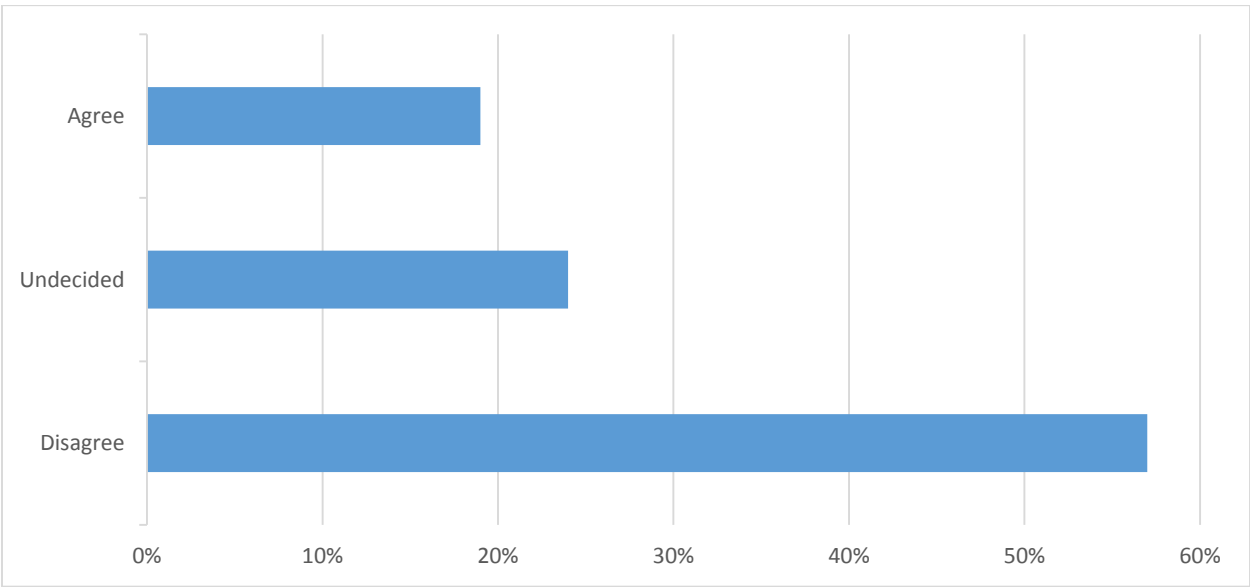

10. Wisconsin should consider legal restrictions on abortion.

11. If additional revenue is available in the state budget, which of the following would you most like the money to go toward?

12. Wisconsin should change the current DNR governance board to an advisory body.

13. Wisconsin should continue sending tax dollars to the Knowles-Nelson Stewardship Fund for land purchases for public recreational purposes.
